2011 LARRY CHESTER EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP AWARD STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATE

Information

Definition

The Larry Chester Excellence in Leadership Award was established in 2009 by Larry Chester, a visionary and generous instructor with the School of Continuing Studies. Larry created this award to recognize and reward emerging leaders registered in the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies Certificate in Strategic Leadership program.

Value

The Excellence in Leadership award is valued at $1,000.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be in good financial standing with the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies.
- Applicants must be University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies students who have successfully completed four Certificate in Strategic Leadership courses and who are registered in the fifth and final course at the time of applying.
- Applicants must formally apply for the Larry Chester Excellence in Leadership Award through the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies at 158 St. George Street, Toronto, ON M5S 2V8; or online at learn.utoronto.ca.

Selection Criteria

Larry Chester describes a leader as “someone who makes change happen.” Larry created this award to recognize the exceptional application of learning from the Strategic Leadership program and to recognize excellence in leadership.
