
U of T and CUHK Alumni Benefit

Congratulations on your decision to pursue lifelong learning! This reciprocal agreement between the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies and School of Continuing and Professional Studies of The Chinese University of Hong Kong provides degree graduates of the University of Toronto and The Chinese University Hong Kong the opportunity to enrol in continuing education at a substantial discount.

The Chinese University of Hong Kong Alumni

This offer is available to graduates of CUHK's undergraduate, graduate, or postgraduate programs. Eligible alumni may receive a credit of up to CDN $600 towards enrolment in any University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies courses. Please note:

- Proof of graduation is required when you register;
- The agreement between SCS and CUHK is available until August 31, 2012;
- The credit possesses has no cash value.

University of Toronto Alumni

The offer is available to U of T alumni who graduated from undergraduate, graduate, or postgraduate programs within the last two academic years (2009/10 and 2010/11). Eligible alumni can receive a credit of up to HKD $3,000 towards a CUSCS's (CUHK School of Continuing and Professional Studies) general course or award-bearing program until August 31, 2012. Please note:

- Proof of graduation is required when you register;
- Admission is made on a first-come-first-served basis
- Not valid for:
 - Continuing Education Fund (CEF) reimbursable courses,
 - CUSCS full-time programs, or
 - programs jointly organized with local, overseas and Mainland organizations and universities
- The credit possesses has no cash value.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES

香港中文大學專業進修學院
School of Continuing and Professional Studies
The Chinese University of Hong Kong