Marilynn Booth Award of Excellence

2019 Application Form

Information

Definition

Throughout her career, Marilynn Booth demonstrated how continuing education broadens horizons, creates opportunity, enriches our culture and builds stronger communities - in our city, across Canada and around the world. This award was created in 2016 to honour Marilynn Booth in her retirement, after a decade of remarkable achievements as Dean of the School of Continuing Studies. The Marilynn Booth Award of Excellence was created to recognize and reward career-focused learners who have demonstrated academic success, personal commitment and exemplary leadership.

Value

The Marilynn Booth Award of Excellence is valued at $1,000. There will be up to six recipients for 2019.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be in good financial standing with the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies.
- At the time of applying, applicants must be University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies students who have successfully completed a minimum of 50% of the required courses to complete a career related certificate program at the School of Continuing Studies, and remain in good academic standing.

Selection Criteria

- Applicants must submit a written personal account (700 - 1,000 words) describing how they have applied their learning to advance their careers.
- Applicants must submit one letter of support from their employer verifying their accomplishments.
- Current curriculum vitae containing full educational and professional history.

Application Procedures

Applicants must formally submit their applications to the U of T School of Continuing Studies at 158 St. George Street, Toronto, ON M5S 2V8, or by email to Ben Wood at benjamin.wood@utoronto.ca. Completed application forms must be received by June 14, 2019. The winner(s) will be determined in the summer and the prize money will be given at an award ceremony in the fall.
