2020 ENTRY GUIDELINES

1. This award is open to students who started a creative writing course at the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies within the period of May 15, 2019 to May 15, 2020. One winner will receive a prize of $1,000. Two runners-up will receive $500.

2. The entry form must accompany the submission.

3. We will accept only one entry per student.

4. Entries must consist of a minimum of three poems, a maximum of five poems, and be no more than six pages or 180 lines in length.

5. Entries must be unpublished and not currently under consideration by a publisher either in print or online.

6. Entries must be typed in a 12-point font, submitted on 8.5 x 11 paper with all pages numbered and stapled together.

7. Three copies of your submission must be included.

8. Each of the three copies must have a title page. To ensure impartial judging, there should be no identifying marks other than the title of the entry on that page.

9. Submissions will not be returned. Following the contest all manuscripts will be recycled in a confidential manner.

10. Deadline: submissions must be post-marked by May 8th, 2020. If delivered in person, please submit your entry and form on or before this date, prior to the end of the work day, 5:00pm. Entries received after the deadline, unless officially postmarked on or before May 8th, will not be accepted.

11. The School of Continuing Studies reserves the right to publish the award-winning entry in its entirety or excerpted on our website and/or in other media for the promotion of the competition. To receive the award the winner will enter into a contract with the School of Continuing Studies for the rights to use the award-winning material. Copyright will remain with the winner.
